

VACATION RENTAL

WHAT VACATION DREAM HOMES ARE MADE OF

If you're looking for a place to relax, unwind and reconnect, look no further than The South Street House - a luxury property that offers lake and intracoastal views with top-notch amenities, and a celebratory event space.

The South Street House was a passion project for Barbara Knight who after the birth of her daughter in Saint Augustine in 2016 dreamed of owning a home on the quant Lake Maria Sanchez in Lincolnville. Be careful what you ask for – just a few months later the house at 24 South Street was destroyed in the hurricane and put on the market. Barbara bought it the same day it listed. The house was knocked down, and Barbara built her Girls Night Out dream home. The home now serves as the perfect place to rent for occasions big and small.

Weddings

This spacious property is tailor made with brides and grooms in mind. Complete with his and her suites. It sleeps 10 people and is a great place to rent for weddings so that the wedding party and/or families can stay in one place. Each bedroom has its own bathroom, with extra bathrooms in other parts of the house, making it easy for many people to get ready at the same time without having to fight over bathroom space. The house is beautifully decorated with both masculine and feminine rooms which make the perfect backdrop for 'getting ready' photos of your big day. The house even has an added on master suite and executive groom suite so they can come in the back way so that the bride won't be seen before her big reveal.

Relaxing Getaway

Every room in the South Street House has a different look and theme and it makes the perfect place for a weekend getaway with the girls or for a bachelorette celebration. It's also a perfect home for milestone Birthdays, family vacations, and corporations retreats. From the balcony water views in every room to the bear claw tubs and high end bedding, it is an ideal place to relax and unwind with a bunch of friends. If you are celebrating a special occasion or just need some R&R, the South Street House provides 5 star comfort. They also have added amenities to liven up your getaway from private chefs and bohemian picnics that can be arranged to enhance your experience.

Family Reunions

The Knights own three other properties on the lake, .7 miles from the heart of downtown, that make their properties the perfect place for a family reunion. The whole family can stay at one of their houses on the lake so each family can enjoy their own private space while being near to one another during their stay. The South Street House is the perfect anchor house and can fit up to 30 people for a family gathering.

The beauty continues inside this luxury property. Visit their website to see inside this gorgeous space.

Every detail of the South Street House from the lighting to the tiles has been thoughtfully designed and chosen with love. If you're looking for an Instagram-able retreat where you will be able to relax, unwind and enjoy your loved ones, the South Street House is it.

With the mention of this article, refer a guest for a three night stay or more and receive $500. Send referrals to hello@southstreethouse.com.

The South Street House

24 South Street, St. Augustine • (954)461-6361
www.southstreethouse.com